A Message from Hon David Templeman, MLA

The annual Plein Air Down Under Outdoor Painting Festival in Mandurah is now an established highlight of our annual Arts and Culture Calendar. This year, we will welcome local artists and visitors to our City including artists from India, USA, New Zealand, UAE and the Eastern States.

The plein air style lends itself so well to a vibrant, interactive and enthusiastic festival. As Minister for the Arts, Patron of the Mandurah Plein Air Artists and local Member for Mandurah, I am so proud of what this festival means for our City, our Region and the Arts in Western Australia. Come down and immerse yourself in this unique artistic style and enjoy learning from experienced plein air enthusiasts.

Congratulations to all artists, Festival Committee and Volunteers and to the sponsors and supporters of Plein Air Down Under 2023.

Hon David Templeman MLA Member for Mandurah Minister for Culture and the Arts

A message from Mayor Rhys Williams

Kaya. Wandju wandju. (Hello. Welcome).

Mandurah, with its expansive wetlands, sprawling estuary, and inviting coastline, offers the perfect setting for plein air painting. My gratitude to the dedicated volunteers and sponsors whose contributions breathe life into this event and to the local, national and international artists who come together to celebrate the amazing stories of this place through their art.

To this years' artists, enjoy your time here and may the natural wonders of Mandurah inspire paintings of energy, spontaneity and personality. Art serves as a unifying thread within our community, weaving stories of inspiration and connection and we are pleased to be able to host Plein Air Down Under for 2023.

Embrace the grandeur of the plein air movement, where every canvas unveils a new narrative.

Mayor Rhys Williams

Welcome to Plein Air Down Under 2023

Since the days of the impressionists, artists have enjoyed the experience of painting outdoors and as we celebrate our fifth birthday, we reflect on our journey.

From that gem of an idea in 2019, Mandurah's Plein Air Down Under has become a nationally recognised outdoor painting festival.

A warm welcome to international Feature Artists Matt Ryder (UAE), Amanda Brett (NZ), Amit Kapoor (India) and local favourite Leon Holmes. Joining them are over 200 local, national and international outdoor painters.

For artists and spectators alike, there are many opportunities to learn and be inspired with Masterclasses, the free Lotterywest Demo Zone and have-a-go activities.

If you are looking to purchase an original artwork, the Mandurah Performing Arts Centre is the place to be.

The Spirit of the Landscape Exhibition in the main gallery features a curated selection of Plein Air Down Under Feature Artists, Award Winners, Guest Artists and a new inclusion, aptly titled "Watch this Space!" The Foyer Gallery will be brimming with artwork created during the festival, and if you are really quick, you can buy direct from the artist's easel!

Whether selling your home, booking accommodation or simply having a coffee, please support the local businesses that make this festival possible.

The Steering Committee, Mandurah Plein Air Artists and volunteers expend time, energy and boundless enthusiasm to make Plein Air Down Under a joyous experience. Sincere thanks to all.

Finally, thank you to our talented artists. Your energy, enthusiasm and continued participation infuses the festival with a rich sense of community and camaraderie. Enjoy every minute!
